Harp and Lyre, 2004
Cast bronze with gold leaf
9 x 11 x 4.5; 12 x 10 x 4.5 inches

$50,000

These wall-mounted sculptures are made of bronze and gold leaf.

Oka Doner, who has aptly been called “nature’s scribe,” defines her task as making the ephemeral material by using organic forms as her vocabulary. Created from cast-bronze palm leaves, this lyre represents the underlying harmony of the universe. The harp represents ascendance, leading us into the next world.
