

Salustiano

Reincarnation, 2005

Acrylic and resins on canvas

47 x 126 x 1.5 inches

$50,000

The work is a painting on canvas, mounted on a wooden stretcher.

This image is based on the idea of the Dalai Lama's reincarnation and his continued evolution and change. It portrays His Holiness in his next incarnation as a young child and is a metaphor for growing, evolving, and transforming.